

INNOVATORS IN DIABETES (IDIA)

Application form deadline: Friday 30 May 2025, 5pm

Name	Title	Date of BSc or first medical degree
Research Type
Is your research clinical, basic or both? (please select)	Basic	Clinical	Both
Current place of work and contact email The name of the centre and the address. Please remember to include your e-mail address.
Current position	Length of time in current role
Postgraduate training and professional experience Please state where you trained, the dates and the qualifications gained.
Membership of professional and/or scientific societies Please state the society name and if you hold any position within the society other than membership.

--

Any other relevant positions, including editorial positions
Please include the dates.

--

Prizes, Awards and Invited lectures
Please provide full details.

--

Research Funding obtained over the last five years
Please give full details including the grant titles, funders, total amount of the awards, duration of the awards and your role (eg. principal investigator).

--

Significant publications

Please list full references of up to a maximum of ten publications. For each publication, please provide one sentence as an indication of your role AND contribution to the work (please do not provide links) and the overall impact of your published work in the field of diabetes.

What impact has your research had on the field of diabetes – 150 words maximum (you may cross-reference to a publication number in the section above to support any statements made)

For junior faculty, a short description of your position within the institute will suffice.

Please outline your future career aspirations and how participating in the IDia programme will support this – 150 words maximum

Supporting statement and signature from Head of Department / Chief of Division – 150 words maximum

Please note that a brief supporting statement is mandatory.

Electronic signature: _____ Print name: _____

Please submit your form by email to research@diabetes.org.uk